ORDER: (per BPR,J)

Heard both sides and at their request the main writ petition itself is taken up for disposal.

Admittedly, the present writ petition is filed against the interim orders pending a substantial application under Section 19 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985 before the Administrative Tribunal, Hyderabad. Since the said interim order dated 03-05-2006 was not implemented the contesting applicant therein filed a contempt case.

Now during the course of arguments it is represented that the petitioner has also filed a counter to vacate the said interim order in V.M.A.No.741 of 2006.

Having regard to the above circumstances, we deem it more appropriate not to advert to merits, at this stage. Sitting under extraordinary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, we deem it more desirable to direct the tribunal to hear both the matters and dispose of them together. It is needless to mention that till such disposal, the CC shall not be proceeded with.

Accordingly the writ petition is disposed of. No order as to costs.
